[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO OCTOBER 17

EASTERN STATES.

The South Carolina Election

COLUMBIA (S C), Oct 16—The State election took place to day for Governor, State officers and five Congressmen The only decided opposition offered by the Democrats was in the Southern District, where B F Perry, ex Provisional Governor under President Johnson, was nominated for Congress It is thought he is elected, defeating Wallace, present member It is generally conceded that the regular Republican State ticket, with Moses for Governor, is elected defeating what is known as the bolters ticket, with Tomlinson for Governor

CHARLESTON, Oct 16—Everything passed off quietly at the election to day There are no conclusive returns in, but the probabilities are that Moses and the regular Republican ticket are elected by a large majority

Will of Mr. Seward.

AUBURN (N Y), Oct 16—The will of Hon William H Seward was opened by the family to day. It is a clear and succinct document, singularly free from legal technicalities, and written entirely in his own hand. He bequeaths his late home at Auburn, with all the contents and surroundings, to his three sons, by one or more of whom it will be occupied and preserved intact as near as possible in its present condition His other property, consisting in part of securities and real estate in Auburn and vicinity, he divides in four equal shares among his sons and adopted daughter, Olive Risley Seward. Two of his sons, Frederick and William, are deputed executors of this provision. No other legacies or bequests are made The property has not yet been appraised, and it is impossible to say precisely what it amounts to, but probably will not be far from $200,000.

The stage now leaves Olympia for the end of the track at Hodgden's at 8 o'clock in the morning. From there passenger cars are running all the way to Kalama, getting to that place before dark in the evening. There being no turn-table except at Kalama, the cars from Hodgden's run all the way backward.

There were four funerals in Olympia on last Tuesday, something never before known in the mortuary statistics of the place. They were those of Mrs. Lewis and a Mr. Hamlin, who died of disease, Mr. Buckner, who committed suicide, and Mr. Turner, who died from injuries received by being thrown from a wagon.

One day last week a man was roped into a game of poker at Seattle, by some professional gentle men, and when he had lost about his last dollar, he grabbed the pile, several hundred dollars in amount, and made his way through a window carrying sod and all with him in his flight A warrant was obtained and an officer sent to arrest him, but the losing party who won got away.

This week Hon. E M. Hollister, Judge of the Third Judicial District of Idaho, showed us a cane which has been in use about 200 years. It originally came from India, and has an ivory head mounted with silver, on which was engraved the date, 1676. An English soldier captured it at the famous battle of the Nile in 1793, brought it to New York and sold it to the Judge's father, Col. A Hollister, in 1812

The Courier says "The vegetables and fruits that received premiums at the Olympia Fair were presented to the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, and will be immediately shipped East This is a wise measure, and is probably the best plan to advertise our Territory and its resources The large apples, huge potatoes, beets and cabbages will give to influential men of the older States some idea of the fertility of our soil and the quality and size of our productions."

A Mr Merchant of Olympia, who was formerly engaged in the soap manufactory, absconded lately, leaving several debts behind. He got into the confidence of H. L. Chapman, Esq, to the tune of four or five hundred dollars and some others in similar sums. Mr. Hicks, of whom he had borrowed some money, followed him to Seattle and found him, but could not persuade him to "shell out." In consequence of his deliquencies the soap factory has stopped business.

The Republicans of Jefferson county, Washington Territory, have nominated the following ticket. Councilman, C. E P. Wood, Representative, C M Bradshaw, Joint Representative with Kitsap L L Moore, Auditor, James Seavey, Sheriff, J H Van Bokkelen; Treasurer, L B Hastings, Probate Judge, James G. Swan, Superintendent of Schools, O C Hastings, Commissioners, Harris, Wood and Gerrish, Surveyor, N J Forman, Coroner, T. M. Hammond, Wreck Master, George Bates.

The Republicans of King county met in Convention at Seattle, on Saturday last and nominated the following ticket For Joint Councilman David Higgins, Representatives, C Clymer, L McMillan, Auditor, W. W Theobalds, Sheriff, H A. Atkins Treasurer, O C. Shorey, Probate Judge, W M York, Assessor, Edgar Bryan, Surveyor, John Whitworth; School Superintendent, George F Whitworth, Coroner, I J Roberts Wreckmaster, R H Beaty County Commissioners, R Robinson, A. C Kimball.

A mass meeting of the voters of Cowlitz and Wahkiakum counties, Washington Territory, irrespective of party or political bias, which was held at Freeport, Cowlitz county, on the 12th instant, nominated the following ticket For Joint Councilman for Clarke, Cowlitz, Wahkiakum and Pacific counties, J B Knapp Joint Representative for Cowlitz and Wahkiakum, Nathaniel Stone Representative for Cowlitz, J B La Du. The following ticket for Cowlitz county was nominated Probate Judge, C Joslyn County Commissioners, C La Du, John Robbins and Solomon Strohm, Sheriff, R O Smith Auditor, E R Huntington, Treasurer, V M Wallace, Assessor, Ambrose Patton, School Superintendent, W J Bowman.

The Olympia Courier says The great want of the Territory for years has been the extension of the public surveys Mr. Garfielde, last year, secured for this Territory an appropriation for that purpose, three times larger than any other Territory has ever received The public statutes show that fact, and we dare the opposition to deny it

H B. No. 141, authorizing the establishment of a Reform School in Portland, was read first, second and third times under suspension of rules, and passed by a unanimous vote

Adjourned.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Senate met at 2 P M and immediately went into Committee of the Whole.

Mr Crawford in the chair.

On motion the committee took up S B No. 9, the general approp riation bill, and proceeded to consider its sections.

Pending the discussion upon several sections, Mr. Fay moved that the Secretary of State be invited to appear before the committee and explain the causes why certain sums should be appropriated for certain expenses named in the bill

The Secretary of State appeared within the bar of the Senate, and proceeded to state that although sums provided to be appropriated for several objects was quite large, it was so made for the protection of the State. If certain appropriations should fall short provision holding warrants against the State could not draw their money, and would claim interest until their warrants were paid by the next general appropriation. This interest the State would save by appropriating sufficient to pay all probable claims against them.

Section 3 was amended by striking out $10,000 for the agricultural fund; also the fugitive fund was amended from $5 000 to $3,000

Mr Fay offered an amendment providing that this general appropriation act shall not be so construed as to revive or for the payment of claims disallowed or cut down by the investigating committee appointed at the last session, but the holders of such claims are authorized to institute suit against the State for the recovery of said claims, and if judgments be obtained in favor of them the Secretary of the State is authorized to pay such claims

After a lengthy discussion in which Messrs. Fay, Myers, Baldwin, Morrison, Dolph and Brown of Baker, participated, the amendment was lost.

Mr. Dolph moved to amend the section by adding at the end "for payment of sundry warrants disallowed by the Investigation Commission, with interest on same, $8,000" Adopted.

FRIDAY MORNING OCTOBER 18 1872

The way Georgia was Carried

The Republican party had not counted Georgia as a Republican State and were not surprised or disappointed when it was carried by the Democrats The Democratic majority however was greater than they had anticipated and the great gains it had been receently shown in Vermont and Maine on the side of the Republicans make the Democratic gains in Georgia the more difficult to explain upon any theory that was reconcilable with honesty in the election It turns out that the law abiding and peace loving Democrats of Georgia who are willing to Mr Greeley and his lieutenants have been so greatly oppressed and wronged by the Ku Klux Legislature had a way of carrying the State which ought to bring the blush of shame to the face of every honest Democrat in the land Nothing that the friends of the colored people of the South have ever told of in regard to the outrages perpetrated upon that race by the Ku Klux exceeds in enormity or equals in boldness, the conduct by which large numbers of these voters were disfranchised at the chief centers of population in the State The people of the South may have been in earnest in their protestations of a disposition to acquiesce in the reconstruction measures and obey the laws of the country If they were the men who manage their politics for them by no means represent their sentiments, as the following letter sufficiently shows

SAVANNAH (Ga.) October 2 1872

Hon J M Edwards, Chairman Republican Committee

At the election held in this city to day the Greeley party had full control of all the polls The managers were all Democrats and disregarded the provisions of law, and would not allow Republicans entitled by law to cast their votes After attempting in vote for several hours they abandoned the polls and went home Over 2 000 Republican voters were deprived of their right to vote The good behavior of the colored men only prevented serious trouble Colonel E Bryant, Deputy Collector of Customs was seriously assaulted by the plug ugies who had been appointed special Deputy Sheriffs The very worst class of the white Democratic element were sworn in as special Deputy Sheriffs A great outrage upon the rights of citizens has been perpetrated The polls were surrounded by a large body of people armed with muskets The Sabre Club patrolled the streets mounted This morning the roads leading to the city were picketed and voters from the country were driven back, and not allowed to come into the city to vote Only four voting places were provided for 8 000 voters in the county, and these all in one building

M H HALL,
Chairman Republican Committee

In corroboration of which we find in the Eastern journals a dispatch as follows

"ATLANTA (Ga.) Oct 2—This morning, at about 8 30 o'clock, a bloody riot occurred in Macon The colored voters had gone to the polls early in considerable numbers They formed a line in single file and began voting in a quiet and orderly manner In a short time the white Democrats present began to manifest much impatience They demanded of the managers that the negroes be passed back in order to give precedence to the whites The managers finally attempted to force the negroes to give place by breaking their line and putting white men in position nearest the polls The colored men, led by Jefferson Long, made a determined resistance The riot raged furiously for a time, and resulted in the death of two negroes and one white man Seven other negroes were shot seriously

"After the conflict ceased and quiet was restored the whites were in position nearest the polls, and the negroes declined any further participation in the election From the most authentic reports the election there has been worse than a farce It has been a crime, in open and defiant violation of the election law

"In this city the election was without any serious disturbance Two colored men were arrested and carried to jail upon charges of having voted illegally There was some excitement among the negroes for a time, but it soon passed off

"We have rumors of disturbances at Augusta and other points, but nothing trustworthy has been learned up to this time concerning them The State has doubtless gone for Smith by a considerable majority as in many localities the colored men were kept away from the polls, in accordance with a prearranged programme with the managers, in the interests of the Democratic candidates."

Here, then, are the first fruits of that repentance of the Southern people which moved Mr Greeley and Senator Sumner, and a few other persons lately occupying high places in the Republican party, into Democratic This is the spirit that is to show forth in that political millenium which is to follow the proposed shaking hands across the bloody chasm The promised reign of peace will be too dearly bought, if we exchange for it the rights and liberties of any class or portion of the people of our country, no matter what their race or color If we were willing to have matters in the South go in that way, we could have done so without the trouble of passing the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the Constitution It was to enable Congress to meet just this state of affairs that these amendments were adopted

Let us Reason Together

We have frequently called attention to the high freight charges upon wheat in this State as compared with other wheat producing countries The following from the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser will be interesting as a basis of comparison

The average rate by lake for 1872 was higher than that for the same month in any preceding year with the single exception of 1866 The market for the month was generally firm and, although the fluctuations were considerable the tendency was to advance The market opened on the 1st with freight on wheat at 8¾c to Buffalo which dropped to 8c on the 3d From that date until the 21st the rate fluctuated between 8c and 10c But as soon as the wheat corner broke and trade was allowed to take its natural course large quantities of grain sought shipment at once The result was a rapid advance of rates On the 22d, 10½c was reached and on the following day 1c more was obtained On the 24th rates had reached 12 and on the 26th they went to 12½c During the remainder of the month the market fluctuated between 12c and 13 closing at the former figure The highest rate reached was 12¾c and the lowest 8c

By canal there has not been so much of an advance The market ruled steady with very slight fluctuations The month opened with the rate on wheat at 11¾c On the 9th an advance of a ½c was reported, and on the 16th rates were quoted 11¾c No further change took place until the 26th when the highest rate of the month—12¾c—was reached From that time until the end of the month the market has a downward tendency and closed at 11¼c the same figures that prevailed at the opening, and which were also the lowest figures of the month

The most noticeable feature of the market for the month is the fact that a press of business which caused the advance of 1c in lake freights should influence canal freights so little But it only goes to show that the capacity of the Erie Canal for carrying purposes has not been reached and it ought eventually to silence the grumblers at the West who are forever finding fault with Clinton's ditch

The average rate of freight it will be observed by lake and canal from Chicago to Albany, eight hundred miles or more is about twenty two cents per bushel in currency The cost from Buffalo to Albany by canal, a distance of 350 miles is about five and a half cents These are higher rates than have ruled since 1866 It would seem that our wheat in Oregon ought to be transported from Albany to Portland a distance of seventy five miles for less than fourteen cents gold or from Lagoma City to Portland a distance of 1 5 miles for less than twenty two cents gold If we expect to take advantage of our near proximity to the sea and induce immigration we must show the advantages that we possess over the Atlantic States not only in being nearer to a shipping point for the foreign market but that our grain can be delivered cheaper on ship board It would seem therefore wise policy for our transportation companies to look to charges upon grain as light as possible to reply to during transportation and stimulating production This will increase largely the quantity of freight and consequently of exportation We must look to this increase for our prosperity The earnings of railways and transportation lines may be less for a time but the increase of production and of the amount of back freights of merchandise will more than repay the reduction With increased facilities we must have a corresponding reduction in our freights Unless we have this our State cannot make rapid advancement In other words if our farmers must pay now the same rate of freight that they did when we only had the river for an outlet and ox teams to compete with it what advantage is our railroads We paid freights to transportation lines and to ox teams that distributed the money within our midst Now if we pay the same freight, and the money must go abroad to pay interest on our railroad bonds what is to be the advantage to the State Low freights are not only for the advantage of the producer the people generally, and to the State, but to railroad and other transportation companies themselves

Mr Postmaster Washburn Again

Some days ago we published an explanation of the sale of the Vancouver Register to the Democrats purporting to be substantially as stated by Mr Washburn himself in a letter to us Our statement was that the property was in such straightened circumstances as made it necessary for him to have pecuniary assistance that he informed the Republicans of this fact, and they did not assist him and that, therefore he sold his paper to the Democrats

Of this statement the Herald's "Quid Nunc" says

The OREGONIAN does not pretend to publish the letter but such statements as shall be of benefit to the persons for whom the OREGONIAN is paid to work I saw the letter that Mr Washburn sent to the OREGONIAN and know that all the reasons therein stated for the course he has pursued are suppressed

As this Quid Nunc is on terms of such familiarity with Mr Washburn as to have the inspection of his letters before he sends them away we suppose the gentleman inspired this communication, and we therefore give him the benefit of it, and will proceed to place beside it the words of Mr Washburn's letter

I have been proprietor of the Register for more than a year past and have conducted it in the interest of the Republican party I have had only their partial support A clique has worked against me They have also tried to get the Post Office taken away from me and are endeavoring to sell the paper I applied to the Republican party for support a long time ago I had lost money in publishing a party paper as I asked the party to make it good I had assurance from H G Struve and Governor Ferry that I should receive indemnity for the loss I had sustained in conducting a party paper Mr Bartleds assumed promised on his arrival that he would see me and aid me as far as was in his power The clique buttonholed him and he did not come near me I was in straightened circumstances, "the poor man" as you are pleased to call me and obliged to dispose of my press unless I received aid from the party for which I was working The aid did not come, and I have disposed of the Register to the Democrats

This is the whole of the explanation of Mr Washburn in his own words If he thinks it places him in a better light before the public, he is more than welcome to the advantage We omitted no material fact in our statement unless it was that Mr Washburn was Postmaster, and that his selling out to the Democracy was in part attributable to the fact that the Republicans did not think him entitled to the office If this influenced him, we beg his pardon for not saying so We seriously trust Mr Washburn is now convinced that we wish to do him the amplest justice

The act to enable the State to purchase the Canal and Locks at the falls of the Willamet—commonly known as Simpson's Lock bill—passed the House yesterday after several important amendments The Republican members who voted for the measure have thus proved to the world that they can neither be intimidated by threats nor misled by guile into doing that which could not but result in great injury to the industry of the State The denunciation of them as disorganizers of the party did not have the desired effect, and they went bravely on in the discharge of their duties as representatives, not of one man but of the whole people of the State of Oregon taking the responsibility which their election as Representatives cast upon them. The people of the State will endorse their action, and before the expiration of two years more we predict there will be few persons of any political party who will not say this was the wisest as well as the most important measure that came before the Legislature of 1872

Before the navigation of the Willamet river passed into the hands of the owners of the railways wheat was taken, by the P F Co from Albany and delivered on board the ship at Portland for 24 25 per ton After the change it cost in the same boats $5 00 This is a difference of $1 25 per ton Here is an illustration of the difference it makes to the producer whether or not the navigation of the river is in the same hands that own the railway What would the saving amount to on 80 000 tons at $1 25 per ton

The act substituting the ballot for the viva voce system of voting has passed both houses of the Legislature This will prove the beginning of a new era in the elections of Oregon Voters hereafter will be at liberty to vote according to their sentiments without the fear of being punished for it by the loss of their business or situation

We call attention to the announcement of a political address from Mr Geo P Ryley the Fred Douglas of Oregon Mr Ryley is one of the most forcible speakers in the State, and will be likely to prove too much for any Greeley man who is in discreet enough to take up the gauntlet which he throws down

The amendment we suggested to the school bill was adopted and the bill has passed both houses We may hope to have something like fairness and decency hereafter in the election of district officers

The Lafayette Register was reported to have burned last night somewhere, south of Yreka before the dispatches were in

REPUBLICANS TO THE FRONT!

MEETING RALLY! Address the citizens of Portland and vicinity by Hon. Geo. H. Williams, at the Court House on Monday evening, Oct. 21st, at 7½ o'clock. All are invited. Mr. Reily expects a challenge of the three leaders and will speak at the appointed hour.

FROM THE CAPITAL

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT

SALEM Oct 1872

Dull does the advocates of strict economy who came hither forty days since to fight appropriations in every shape are prepared now to yield to the clamorous demands of the various sections of our State I cannot enumerate all the measures before this Legislature asking appropriations in aid of wagon roads railroads schools and private and public works of every conceivable nature There is no proposition now before the House to purchase a brick machine for the use of the Penitentiary for which our Representatives are asked to pay $40 000 Another introduced by Mr Burbank on yesterday makes an appropriation for the purchase of the Rangum shackle—a Washington Territory invention This shackle it is claimed is in all essentials, far superior to the Gardner shackle now in use in the Penitentiary and for which the State has paid $5 000 According to the last report on the condition of our State Prison, this Gardner shackle is little better than an instrument of torture The prisoners upon whom the Superintendent is obliged to place it have to bear a burden of eighteen pounds which strains the ankle and—the physician says—produces disease in many instances The commonest sense of humanity pleads for some remedy for this evil I am informed that the Oregon Penitentiary is the only prison in the United States where shackles are used for the prevention of escapes We hope the present session may not expire before some measure looking to the relief of these unfortunate men shall have been devised

THE PORTLAND WATER BILL

remains in statu quo There seems to be a strong opposition to this bill in the Multnomah delegation As a member from Southern Oregon expressed it last night It is their fight This seems to be the general feeling among members not directly interested in the matter although I have heard a number of gentlemen in the House utter decided opinions in favor of the bill

THE APPORTIONMENT BILL

came in from the Senate and was passed by a vote of ayes 45 noes 1 This act was introduced by Senator Dolph and was passed without amendment to the original bill—a synopsis of which has been published in your columns At 10 A M the

SPECIAL ORDER OF THE MORNING—

The Canal and Locks Bill—came up for amendment The champion of Marion county opened the ball by the introduction of an amendment authorizing the Canal Commissioners to lease the Locks for a term of ten years at $25 000 per annum This elicited a long and heated discussion wherein charges and counter charges of fraud were frequently indulged in Notwithstanding the spirited remonstrances of the Speaker, considerable disorder ensued After the smoke of action had cleared away however no corpses were visible Mr Patton's amendment was lost Several other amendments intended to delay the final vote were introduced The discussion of which occupied the afternoon At 6 o'clock the hungry and tired House ordered the bill to a third reading to morrow at 10 o'clock and adjourned to 7 30 P M

THE EVENING SESSION

was characterized by a scarcity of work as numerous bills were passed, the most important being a bill authorizing the incorporation of a Reform School in the county of Multnomah Among the Trustees I noticed the names of M P Deady A C Gibbs W S Ladd, B Goldsmith and Capt Flanders On motion of Mr Congle the rules were suspended and the bill read first and second time by title The House invited Dr A L Lindsley to explain the object and workings of the proposed measure The Doctor addressed the House in a brief speech showing the urgent need of such an institution in the city of Portland and depicting in forcible language the great advantage of this over every other system of dealing with the youthful criminals The bill provides that the county of Multnomah shall set apart from the Poor House Farm, fifteen acres of land to be used for the building of an edifice for the purposes above indicated The school is to be supported by voluntary contributions

IN THE SENATE.

The only action of interest was the passage of H B No 1—to repeal the Litigant Act The debate was long and acrimonious Senator Fay voted for the bill,—all other Democrats voting nay The bill with two unimportant amendments was sent to the House There the amendments were concurred in, and at 9 o'clock the

was sounded There were few mourners—only one or two Democratic editors whose bread has been buttered for two years with the richest products of the Executive churn But the grief of a Democratic editor—as editor—is not long lived

THE PORTLAND POLICE BILL

has been signed by the Speaker and the President of the Senate, and is now in the hands of the Governor

The bill appropriating 25 per cent of the proceeds of sale of swamp lands and over flowed lands to the Common School fund failed in the House last night

The discussion on the Lock Bill in to day's morning session was decidedly vigorous After several days hard fighting the bill has passed the House at last by a vote of 25 ayes to 23 noes More concerning this to morrow

A SENSIBLE RULING

The Speaker ruled yesterday that although gentlemen might be allowed to speak of the acts of the former Legislature in terms of reprehension yet in the discussion of measures now before the House he could not permit gentlemen to characterize any measure as a steal

SUSPICIOUS CHARACTERS.—It was a few days ago that some Indians had a small gold dust in considerable quantities at merchants of Olympia The query naturally arise from a circumstance of water when and how did those Indians possession of gold dust? It is a well that there children of the forest and plains gold diggers and more especially wander about through this State or Washington Territory The most reasonable supposition that the Indians obtained it by other than digging, and if so in what way? We heard of a circumstance that may contribute materially towards explaining the manner the Indians came in possession of About three weeks ago two men on East Portland, on their way to the South men were suspicious looking individuals did not fail to impress those who saw them unfavorably by their desperate and reckless appearance There were several Indians with these men, who remained closely in camp during the time they sojourned in vicinity The two men came to this city dimes and purchased a few articles of clothing To payment at each place where purchases made they offered gold dust, but the dust was not being brokers, declined to take it The purchasers found that the dust was not fully paid for the articles in coin, of which they appeared to have an abundant supply A few days after their arrival here the party left, packed up their ponies and started, as they informed several parties they were bound, as they informed several parties, for Olympia It is quite probable that the Indians offered the gold dust to the Olympia merchants the same ones who were in East Portland a few weeks ago There appears to be some suspicious about the whole matter The men evidently given the Indians to exchange their gold dust by the white men, who, doubtless, to avoid suspicion and inquiry of themselves made an attempt to exchange the precious ore at a challenge The two men who offered the gold in this city, must certainly have had a large amount of liar motive for so doing There was no reason for tendering the dust instead of coin, for there are several brokers in the city who would have gladly purchased the dust of them The actions of these men, as well as their appearance, would forbid the supposition that both or either were miners, or came in possession of the dust by fair and legitimate means

MUSICAL INSTRUCTOR.—Prof. Richardson, whose card appears in another column of this city on the last steamer. Mr. Richardson is a very competent instructor on both the piano and organ He comes among us with the highest possible recommendations from a number of the long musicians of the East For the last year Prof Yarndley has resided in California where he has pursued his profession with satisfactory success Should he meet with sufficient encouragement, he proposes to establish himself in Portland Those who desire to receive instruction on either the piano or organ, would do well to consult Mr Yarndley at the earliest opportunity

NEARLY A FIRE.—Last evening about 7 o'clock an alarm was sounded from box 3 and the several fire companies promptly responded to the call The fire alarm originated in the International Hotel. One of the lodgers in retiring to bed set a candle on the wash stand by the window. The curtain came in contact with the light and caught fire In a moment the curtain was in a blaze, and a general conflagration seemingly imminent. The alarm was communicated, but before the arrival of the firemen the embryo fire was extinguished and quiet

OUT AGAIN.—Zed. Wilson, the notorious renegade, who is indicted for the crime of perjury, is again out on bail. When the case for trial at the last term of the Circuit Court of this county to appear, having fled the city. He was after arrested in one of the lower counties and placed in jail for safe keeping We have since learned that, although he has once failed his bonds on this same charge, yesterday allowed to go free, to await his trial. The second bail bond His sureties are said to be Brown and A. H Whitley.

L Samuel having met with flattering success during the canvass for his new City Directory of Portland and East Portland, has decided to still further improve his publication by issuing a number of very fine lithograph

CITY.

SUSPICIOUS CHARACTERS.—It was reported a few days ago that some Indians had offered for sale gold dust in considerable quantities to several merchants of Olympia. The query would most naturally arise from a circumstance of that character, when and how did those Indians come in possession of gold dust? It is a well known fact that these children of the forest and plain are not gold diggers and more especially those who dwell about through this state or Washington Territory. The most reasonable supposition is that the Indians obtained it by other means than digging, and if so in what way? We have just heard of a circumstance that may contribute much towards explaining the manner as to how the Indians came in possession of the dust. About three weeks ago two men escaped near Fort Portland, on their way to the Sound. These men were suspicious looking individuals and did not fail to impress those who saw them very unfavorably by their desperate and ruffianly appearance. There were several Indians along with these men who remained closely about the camp during the time they sojourned in that vicinity. The two men came to this city several times and purchased a few articles of clothing. In payment at each place where purchases were made they offered gold dust but the merchants not being brokers, declined to take it. When the purchasers found that the dust was declined, they paid for the articles in coin, of which they appeared to have an abundant supply. A few days after their arrival here the party Indians and all, packed up their ponies and departed, and all, packed up their ponies and departed, as they informed several parties, for Olympia. It is quite probable that the Indians who offered the gold dust to the Olympia merchants are the same ones who were in East Portland a few weeks ago. There appears to be something suspicious about the whole matter. The dust was evidently given the Indians to exchange for coin by the white men, who, doubtless wished to avoid suspicion and inquiry of themselves which an attempt to exchange the precious article might challenge. The two men who offered gold dust in this city, must certainly have had some peculiar motive for so doing. There was no necessity for tendering the dust instead of the coin as there are several brokers in the city who would have gladly purchased the dust of them. The actions of these men, as well as their villainous appearance, would forbid the supposition that death or either were miners, or came in possession of the dust by fair and legitimate means.

MUSICAL INSTRUCTOR.—Prof. Richard Yardley, whose card appears in another column, arrived in this city on the last steamer. Mr Yardley is a very competent instructor on both the piano and organ. He comes among us with the best possible recommendations from a number of the leading musicians of the East. For the last two years Prof Yardley has resided in California, where he has pursued his profession with satisfaction and success. Should he meet with sufficient encouragement, he proposes to establish himself in Portland. Pupils who desire to receive instructions on either the piano or organ, would do well to consult Mr Yardley at the earliest opportunity.

NEARLY A FIRE.—Last evening about half past 7 o'clock an alarm was sounded from No 1 s bell, and the several fire companies promptly responded to the call. The fire alarm originated from the International Hotel. One of the lodgers on retiring to bed set a candle on the wash stand near the window. The curtain came in contact with the light and caught fire. In a moment the whole curtain was in a blaze and a general conflagration seemingly imminent. The alarm was communicated, but before the arrival of the companies the embryo fire was extinguished and all danger past.

OUT AGAIN.—Zed Wilson, the notorious rogue and vagabond, who is indicted for the crime of subornation of perjury, is again out on bail. When called for trial at the last term of the Circuit Court he failed to appear, having fled the city. He was soon after arrested in one of the lower counties and placed in jail for safe keeping. We have been informed, that, although he has once already forfeited his bonds on this same charge, he was yesterday allowed to go free, to await his trial on a second bail bond. His sureties are Dr G W Brown and A. H. Whitley.

L. Samuel having met with flattering success during the canvass for his new City Directory of Portland and East Portland, has determined to still further improve his publication by inserting a number of very fine lithographs of our prominent buildings, as well as several scenes in different parts of Oregon. He will save no trouble or expense in order to make this the most reliable, neatest and best Directory ever published here. His advertising rates are twenty five per cent lower than heretofore paid for inferior publications. Subscribe for it.

FIRE BUILDING.—One of the largest and finest buildings for mercantile purposes in the city that of J. S. Smith and brother, is nearly completed. It extends from Front to First street on Ash, and covers an entire half block. The building is divided into eight stores on the ground floor, any two of which adjoining may be thrown together if desired. Since July last the workmen on this building have not lost two hours work on account of bad weather.

FILTHY WEAPONS.—The Herald reporter has recently been making a tour along the city wharves and finds them in a horrible condition. We have frequently been along the same track and can conscientiously certify to the truth of his statement. Line upon line has been given through the press upon the subject of filthy wharves, until the suitable expression of old Boss Tweed is appropriate, "Well, what are you going to do about it?"

PARAQUETS.—Fourteen paroquets were brought from Honolulu by the Jane A Falkinburg. Like most of the feathered denizens of the tropics their plumage is of a brilliant and variegated character with a decided preponderance of scarlet and green hues. These birds could be called handsome were it not for their close resemblance of the parrot, of which they are a specie.

TOWAGE.—The tug Ben Holladay has been so constantly employed for the last week in towing vessels up and down the river, that she has had no opportunity to have the missing propeller attached. At present but one screw is being used. She will be beached at Astoria in a few days and the other propeller added.

TENDERED.—Rev D Jones who expects soon to take his departure for the South to labor as a Missionary among the Freedmen will be tendered a substantial benefit at the new Masonic Hall on the evening of the 24th inst by his numerous friends. The exercises will consist of music recitations, tableaux, etc.

MUSIC.—Mr G L DeProux has laid us under obligations for two new pieces of music just issued, which he has placed on our table. The titles are "God bless Papa. Bring Him Safely Home" and "Living Hearts Around You Mother" words by S Booth and music by Geo F Evans.

APPOINTMENT.—Mr George F Grant has been appointed Manager of the Oregon branch of the Firemen's Fund Insurance Co. This is one of the San Francisco companies that has met its Chicago losses in full—having paid over $500 000. Mr Grant will open his office in a few days.

FIRED.—Newman, the painter, who was arrested on Wednesday on the three charges of disorderly conduct, assault and resistance to an officer was tried before Judge Denny yesterday morning. The Court imposed a fine of $10 and costs, which was paid.

FIRES.—For the last two or three weeks fires have been seen nightly among the timber on the hills west of the city glaring in the gloom like so many beacon lights at intervals.

SALMON.—The Dixie Thompson brought up from down the river last evening about 350 half barrels of salmon, which will be shipped below on the steamer.

For all kinds of upholstery work window shades, curtains, baskets brackets etc call at Paul Richter's. Work promptly attended to.

COUNTY COURT.—The County Court will convene this afternoon at 1 o'clock at which time the levying of county taxes will be made.

SOIREE POSTPONED.—The first grand soiree of the Washington Guard is postponed till Wednesday evening.

FORWARDED.—The locomotive Wallula was forwarded to its destination this morning on the Dalles boat.

CRUSHED BY A TREE.—Four miles northwest from this city an old man named Shavers has resided for a number of years. Mr Shavers owned a small farm near the Cornell Road and carried on gardening as a means of livelihood. He peddled vegetables every year through the city and consequently was well known in this community. His wife died some years ago and he has since that time resided on his little farm all alone. About two weeks ago Shaver was missed from his house but it was thought he had gone away somewhere on a visit. Several days more passed away and still no one of his neighbors who called to see him on business found the house solitary and deserted. Shaver's continued absence at length excited some comment and finally ended in apprehensions that all was not right. Last Wednesday several of the near neighbors met and after a consultation as to the probable whereabouts of the old gentleman concluded to look for him. Search was instituted at once. After a diligent quest of several hours the body of Shaver was found crushed and mangled between two trees about one half mile away from his house. It appears that the unfortunate old man had gone out to chop in the timber in the vicinity of where he had hauled some lumber, brick and other building materials, where he intended constructing a more commodious dwelling than the one in which he had been living, in the course of a few months. A tree about two feet in diameter was found lying directly across the middle of his body and a large log at his back against which he had been crushed. From the position in which the body was found and the appearance of the premises Shaver must have chopped at the tree until it began to fall, when he started to get out of the way. Instead, however, of escaping from the danger, he only rushed in the way. He was evidently walking away from the stump on a small log when the descending tree struck one end of the prostrate trunk on which he was standing, causing it to suddenly turn over. Shaver must have been pushed backward several yards, and striking with his back against a large fir log, was severely stunned by the shock. Before he could recover, the falling tree caught him. He was found tightly wedged in between the two trunks, grasping firmly with a death grip the handle of the axe. The man who discovered the body came to town and notified the Coroner which officer, losing no time, repaired to the scene early yesterday morning and proceeded to hold an inquest over the remains. A jury was summoned consisting of the near neighbors of the dead man. After a very brief examination into the causes which led to the death of Shaver, the jury returned the following verdict:

We the jury summoned by the Coroner of Multnomah county, Mr T J Dryer, find that the deceased, John Shaver came to his death by a tree falling on him while chopping in the woods. W H Hankins (Foreman) Joseph Smith, Andrew Gubser, James Wilson, S C Barton, H F Wagor.

Deceased was aged about 53 years. As before stated, he had been a widower for a number of years past. He has a brother residing in Washington county, and a son—a young man about 22 years old—who is living at present on Hood River. The body was considerably decomposed, and from appearances must have laid there where it was discovered for the last eight or ten days. At the conclusion of the inquest, axes and saws were brought on the ground and after several hours of labor the body was extricated and buried.

The deceased was for several years a resident of Clackamas county, where he was well known. He was a quiet, peaceable citizen, industrious and well respected by all who knew him.

NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.—It is stated that before the close of the present season the cars of the Northern Pacific Railroad will run through to the Missouri river, a distance of 452 miles from Lake Superior. Here the road will strike a line of navigation to Fort Benton, a thousand miles westward, and communicating with the mining and farming regions of Montana. About four hundred miles westward from Fort Benton the navigable waters of the Columbia begin and this link bridged over there will be a second line of communication between the Atlantic and Pacific. On this side sixty five miles of road will be completed this fall. The enterprise which is building the road bids fair to carry through its magnificent work of opening up a vast scope of country and providing new and prosperous homes for ten millions of people, without cheating the Government or stockholders out of a dollar.

PAINTINGS.—Mr J H Garrigan, a well known artist of this city, is engaged at present in painting two pictures from views taken on the Columbia, between the mouth of the Wallamet and the Upper Cascades. These sketches are intended to be 6x8 feet each, and when finished, will, no doubt compare favorably with anything of the kind in the State. Mr Garrigan has several of his paintings on exhibition at the late State Fair held at Salem, which he afterwards sold for pretty fair sums. A view of the Cascades and Tooth Ridge, size 4x6 feet, brought $300, and for two views of Lake Tahoe, California, he received $50.

HEALTHY.—The people of Portland and her younger sister "over the way," are in the enjoyment of an unusual degree of good health. At present there are but few persons complaining of ill health, which may be attributed directly to the climate or state of the weather at this season of the year. It is the opinion of one of our physicians that the general health is better now than it has been for any time previous for a number of years.

SHOULDER BLADE BROKEN.—A little girl, whose parents reside in the northern portion of the city, met with a painful accident a few days ago. She was playing on the door steps, and losing her balance, fell backward to the ground, a distance of about five feet. She struck on her back, fracturing the shoulder blade and otherwise injured her.

APPOINTED.—The Pacific says in a late number: Rev George H Atkinson D D, pastor of the Congregational Church in Portland Oregon, has been appointed by the American Home Missionary Society a missionary at large for that State and adjacent Territories.

CLOSED.—The Washington County Fair, which commenced at Hillsboro on Monday closed on Thursday. The attendance has been quite flattering. Quite a number of our citizens were out at different times during the week and report the Fair as a success in every respect.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The next term of the Circuit Court for this county, will commence on the 11th of next month. There will no doubt be a full docket to dispose of.

BOUND EAST.—The Dalles boat this morning took several emigrant families bound for some part of Eastern Oregon.

DISCONTINUED.—The Postoffice at Carrolton Cowlitz county, Washington Territory, has been discontinued.

AMUSEMENTS

A grand matinee will be given at Oro Fino Theater to morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The thrilling drama of Avenger will be offered to the public in the evening.

The thrilling drama Will and the Way was rendered last evening at Oro Fino Theater. The attendance was much better the preceding nights since the opening of the season—the house being well filled. The plot of the piece is well worked out as its details and complete with thrilling interest as the whole. It was well admirably acted and met with deserving applause. The same play this evening.

PERSONAL

Henry Smith of Oregon arrived at San Francisco yesterday overland from the East.

M W Feshhammer Esq., a young attorney of this city will take his departure on the steamer Orizaba for San Francisco. Should he succeed in making the necessary arrangements while he will Mr F will return in a few weeks, and will attend the World's Exposition which will meet at Vienna Austria sometime next May.

LOCAL BREVITIES

Clam chowder now.

Cool nights continue.

Dancing clubs organized.

Strong indications of rain.

Fish plenty in the markets.

Dust has retired for the present.

Close of the "heated term"—linen clothes.

Thermometer yesterday stood 69°, 51° 53°.

The city Dads are again after the city clock.

Observe the new advertisements in this morning's issue.

Mount Hood has not shown its hoary head to Portlanders for some time.

An exchange correctly defines advertising "a blaster which draws customers."

The gamblers and sich have absented themselves this week to attend the Hillsboro Fair.

We have observed many changes among business men in the southern portion of the city.

An obliging set of gentlemen—those connected with the office of Wells Fargo & Co of this city.

The amount ordered paid by the Council last evening was very large. This is accounted for from the fact that it was the first regular meeting for three weeks.

Printed paper and it is not generally known, is made over into white paper again at the mills on the Clackamas.

During the rainy season now close at hand waiting rooms should be built for the accommodation of those awaiting the arrival and departure of the steamers and ferries.

EAST PORTLAND MATTERS

From the Era

There is a very large force of Chinese now engaged in clearing off timber in Holladay's Addition cutting it up into cord wood and burning out the stumps.

The laying of the water pipe from the depot to Holladay's Avenue is nearly completed and will be quite an improvement to that portion of the city. A large cistern is being constructed which will be kept filled with water from Sullivan's Springs.

The brick kiln of Mr. Graham, of which mention has heretofore been made, is now nearly completed. In a few days fire will be started up in it, and then the city will be fully supplied with a fine article of brick with which to erect houses, curb wells, etc.

The public school of this city, under the efficient management of Prof Freeman and Miss Charlton is in a flourishing condition. One hundred and thirty pupils are now in daily attendance, and the number is being swelled by fresh accessions each week.

Messrs Raffety Bros, have had their mineral cabinet completed, and are now busily arranging the different specimens, numbering between three and four hundred. Some of them are quite curiosities in their way, and when they are properly labelled we shall give a more extended description of them.

A happy surprise was given Rev Mr Joysley and family, of the Congregational Church, last evening, at his residence on Holladay Avenue, by some of his friends and neighbors coming in and taking possession, making a visit, and leaving substantial tokens of friendship to the amount of forty dollars.

WASHINGTON COUNTY FAIR.

[FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.]

FAIR GROUNDS, Oct 16, 1872.

The turnout is very large to-day, and the grounds are brilliant with the gay throng. The receipts at the gate amounted to $1,000 yesterday, and how much to-day I have not ascertained, but I know the crowd is very large, and the exhibition of articles in the different departments is good. Let us step into the Pavilion and see the display of productions of which are spread out on purpose to be looked at. There are four lots of apples, any number of lots of butter, new and old, with honey, pickles, jellies, canned fruits, peaches, pears, plums, etc., and twenty-five different lots of cake of nearly as many different kinds. Jellies made by all sorts of people, out of all sorts of ingredients; cakes by little girls and their mammas; and any amount of such substantials as potatoes and cabbage. Here also are oats and wheat and timothy seed; and flowers and bulbs and tubs, and all these things which the Darwinian botanists have manufactured out of the old fashioned pinks and lilies, and damask roses to please our eyes and give elasticity to our spirits. And then the good housewife has brought out her show of bed-spreads and rag carpets and stockings and gloves and—and soap, which we look at and think away down in the bottom of our hearts that we like those things better than all the fine touches of pastel and crayon, and shell-work and bead-work, and papier mache, which go to make up what we facetiously call female education.

TROTTING AGAIN.

Not satisfied with the speed made the first day we have had some more trotting. It is hardly worth while to give the particulars of the race, except that B. B. Acker, of your city, won it, and that the best time made was 2:53.

RUNNING.

The single dash of a mile to-day, free to all animals was better contested than any of the previous trials of speed. W. G. Scoggin named Norwich, Wm. Gird named Buckskin Bill, and W. White named Henry Welch. Henry led till they were on the home stretch, when Norwich dashed past him and took the race in 1:52¼.

SHOOTING.

There was a shooting match on the grounds, but I am not advised whether or not a premium is offered for the best shot.

MISCELLANEOUS.

W. G. Scoggin got the premium on saddle horse; S. G. Reed on Durham cow, heifer and yearling. B. E. Stewart took a large number of premiums on graded cattle; the premiums on swine were divided between Reed, Stewart, S. Patterson, R. Imbrie and G. Morrow; Reed took everything on chickens except the prize for buff cochins, which was awarded to Stewart.

The "shows" have done well, but the crowd of people was the best show.

The Fair has been a grand success.

Some boys stole a pair of boots belonging to Jerry Knox. They were Portland boys, and Jerry is a Portland name. They took the boots for old acquaintance sake. Jerry did not enjoy it, because there were $30 inside the boots. The boys gave their names as Theodore Johnson and Richard Robinson. They will stop in the Washington county jail one month, to gratify a justice of the peace who got into the affair somehow or other.

FOURTH DAY.

It is impossible for any one to get at the full receipts of the Society correctly, but every indication is that the Society will pay its premiums in full, and have something left; Washington always does pay all she owes in every department.

WAGONS AND BUGGIES.

The total absence of wagons, carriages, etc., on exhibition, seem to be a perfect mystery, and can only be accounted for in this way: several complaints have been made by mechanics, that the premiums offered by fairs would not justify the wear and tear necessary in taking to and from the fair; that, taking a fine buggy to the fair, say worth the sum of $400, and have the paint all kicked off, and the wood scratched up for a premium of $10, was a losing game. Mechanics have turned their attention to growing pumpkins, so as to get a premium of $2. We recommend the above to the prayerful consideration of all agricultural societies.

CATTLE.

Washington county can boast also of the finest breeds of cattle, sheep, and horses for all purposes, of any county in the State; and fatter babies. If you don't believe it, just come out and see for yourself. The exhibition of all kinds of stock establishes the fact, that there has been a decided improvement in the last two or three years. The imported stock is as good as can be found in any country; while the graded varieties are fast merging into pure blood.

THE TURF.

The trials of speed in some instances have been poorly managed, yet in the main the contests have been close and earnest, if slow. The running races have been hotly contested. The Norwich stock have made very good time, considering the extra length of the track, and its spongy condition. Other horses have done exceedingly well, and had it not been for an accident Mr. White's Henry Welch would have carried off the palm in the single dash, but unfortunately a very severe cut let him down.

THE AVERAGE.

Taken all in all, the exhibitions at the fair average well in every department, comparing with other fairs. Several gentlemen of note contend that it excels all other county fairs, and equals the State Fair in quality.

THE GENERAL CONDUCT

Of visitors has been extremely good. No brawrelling or fighting has as yet been indulged in, and drunkenness is hardly noticeable. Gentlemen from California say that the people are the most orderly that they have ever seen at any large public gathering. Petty thefts have been few.

SHOOTING MATCH.

The shooting match yesterday came too late for a report, and it is well that it did, as the man who owns the land adjoining the Fair ground, bitterly complains that his fine grove of timber has been completely riddled by wild shots fired. There were only two good shots in the lot, and "they were far from the mark."

TRIALS OF SPEED.

The walking match came off to-day noon. Several horses were entered. The match was won by R. Imbrie's horse. No time taken. At one o'clock P. M., the running race for horse, mare or gelding, three years old, came off, W. G. Scoggin entered Norwich, Bill Gird by Wm. Tenant. This was one of the most exciting, spirited contests that we ever witnessed. Gird ran well for a while, but Norwich finally led off at about two to one, and the first heat was won by Norwich by one length. Time 1:54. The second heat was won by Norwich in 1:57¼. Norwich pulled heavy. A match race at three o'clock, between S. J. Scott's stallion, Jack Miner, and R. D. Perkins' bay, Jim, single dash of a mile. Jack Miner won the race with ease.

INCIDENTS.

Last night the house of A. T. Crocker, one mile east of Hillsboro, was entered by burglars of a voracious character, who took away a large quantity of flour and some cakes.

A young man on the fair ground, who had lost heavily on a raffle, appealed to the Society, but found no remedy. His lesson is a good one, though it cost him dearly.

It is now determined beyond a doubt that Norwich stock is the fastest in the State.

The Agricultural Society has doubtless received enough to clear itself of all indebtedness.

FROM CLARKE COUNTY.

"DEMORALIZED."

VANCOUVER, W. T., Oct. 14, 1872.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

The Register of the 12th, in an article under the above head, talks learnedly about the demoralization of the Republican party of this Territory, and its utter ruin. The author of that article indulges much in assertion. He gives no facts, no data, either because he has none, or because the facts and data when found would not suit the occasion.

As to the demoralization of the party, history and facts tell us that it was so demoralized in 1869 that it gave Mr. Garfielde a majority of about two hundred and fifty. In 1870 it had become so far demoralized that it gave Garfielde a majority of seven hundred and fifty! In 1872, at Kalama, it was in such a state of demoralization that Garfielde was unanimously renominated!! And if it goes on at this rate it will give Garfielde a majority of one thousand, in November. The demoralization has become almost unbearable, and has at last reached such a point that it refused to hire the Register to blow for it. This last evidence of demoralization was the "last straw that broke the camel's back."

The conscientious editor and proprietor of the Register could stand the carpet baggers, and the citizens, and all that, but want of greenbacks was past bearing. That was utter degradation and infamy. We should really like the Register to rise and explain, to give its experience, to tell how, step by step, it went from one conclusion to another until it found out how sadly demoralized the Republican party was. And just tell us, if you please, if your faith in the party did not begin to shake, just as the greenbacks became invisible.

And while you are explaining, let us have some more leaves from the "record" you have been reading. Tell us about those who were ruled out, and who ruled them out. Also tell us who were whipped in, and who did the whipping. Facts are things that tell, you know. Tell us who are dissatisfied now, and how many have left the party, and in what party they are now to be found. Then, if you have time, you may tell us about the harmony in your own party.

It is best not to be in a hurry—to keep cool all the time, and as to guessing about the result, perhaps the result in Pennsylvania and Ohio may prove a warning. Appearances are sometimes deceiving, and there is really no telling what those carpet-baggers and cliques may do. It may be that they will "whip" so many dissatisfied Republicans to the polls, that when the votes are counted, it will be found that the Republican party is, if possible, more demoralized than ever.

THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

The Register of last Saturday says: "Several youths, with scarcely enough beard on their chins to show color, with a few oldliners to give the thing tone, have formed a ticket which they call a Republican ticket. We are free to admit that we have some rather young men on our ticket. Unlike many we know of, they are not ignorant in spite of age and experience. The youngest man on our ticket is Mr. Charles Brown, candidate for Auditor. Mr. Brown has superior clerical qualifications, and business tact and judgment far beyond his years. Therefore, the absence of a luxuriant beard may be regarded as measurably compensated for. Mr. Jacob Probstel, Jr., candidate for Sheriff, is also a young man, though the absence of the "hairy" qualification in his case is owing less to his want of years than to the obstinacy of nature. Dame nature does not get up her best specimens out of The Register's mold. He is a good business man and is not only capable but honest. He has in various ways proved his ability to discharge the duties of the office for which he is a candidate without calling in the aid of the old and infirm. As these are the only men on our ticket who have not voted and held office for the last ten years, it is not worth while to consider this objection further.

Who are the "old-liners" to whom objection is made? Mr. J. M. Fletcher was never before a candidate for either a county or district office. He was only recommended by our County Convention as its choice for the office of Prosecuting Attorney, on account of his peculiar fitness for the place. And if we mistake not the writer of the above fling voted for the recommendation. Every one of the candidates for the Legislature on our ticket are men of experience. Mr. S. P. McDonald represented this county in the Assembly three years ago, and has no reason to be ashamed of the record he then made. Mr. J. A. Orr served two terms in the Legislative Assembly of Idaho, and one term in this Territory. He is an outspoken enemy of everything that wears the semblance of wrong. Mr. Alvin Clark served the county faithfully in the Legislature many years ago. He has the will and the ability to do so again. Mr. David Schuele, candidate for Treasurer, is the present incumbent of that office, which he has filled to the satisfaction of the public for two terms. The finances of the county were never in safer hands. The candidates for County Commissioners are David R. Fales, George W. Jones and Geo. J. Tooley. All thorough-going, thrifty farmers, who by the successful management of their own business give evidence of capacity to manage the affairs of the county. M. R. Hathaway, Esq., will serve the public well as Probate Judge. Mr. Michael Shea has shown himself to be a fair appraiser of property, and is the very man the county wants for Assessor. Dr. Turner, the candidate for School Superintendent, combines all the qualifications essential to the proper discharge of the responsible duties of the position. Dr. W. H. Goddard, candidate for Coroner, fills the bill to a "hair." His election is already conceded. As a whole, the ticket is an excellent one, and we challenge the opposition, if they will confine themselves to facts, to urge aught against the qualifications or integrity of any man on the ticket.

CLARKE COUNTY.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

THURSDAY EVENING, Oct. 17, 1872.

Gold in New York to-day, 114.

Portland Legal Tender rates, 87c buying; 88 selling.

Wheat in Liverpool, 12s., and 13s. 2d.

The steamer Oriflamme is announced to sail Friday evening for San Francisco, with freight and passengers.

The bark Jane A. Falkinburg, which arrived here Monday evening, brought the following freight: Coverlidge, Wadhams & Co., 727 kgs sugar; Corbitt & Macleay, 500 kgs sugar, 44 kgs molasses; Allen & Lewis, 3,263 kgs sugar, 241 bgs sugar, 66¾ tons salt, 68 bls pubs, 60 bgs rice; J. McCraken & Co., 562 kgs sugar, 8,090 gold fish, and 3,000 limes.

The last number of the Commercial Herald of San Francisco says, "from the commencement of the year up to the middle of June the California market was pregnant with loanable funds. Interest rates declined to a limit which permitted the employment of Money in enterprises which higher prices would not warrant; but the remarkably large crops of grain, particularly Wheat, with which we were favored, created a correspondingly increased demand for Money to harvest and market them. Capitalists being fully warned, prepared to meet the contingency, and managed with so much address and sound judgment, that, although these extraordinary requirements were satisfied, the channels of other business in other branches have not been obstructed. During the two last months past, the Money market has been strained to its utmost tension, but without disastrous results. Tightness has prevailed without positive stringency, and rates have been strengthened rather than augmented, remaining steady, with an unusual demand, at 1@1½ per month in commercial, and 9@10 per cent. per annum in savings bank. Outside prices have been determined by the exigencies of borrowers, and the conclusions or want thereof, of lenders. At present writing there is a feeling of confidence in the community that a redux of funds will occur at an early date from the heavy exportation of cereals and other domestic produce. We owe but little, and the balance of trade will be largely in our favor."

Our home Produce market presents no important change. Wheat is being received in liberal quantities and prices seem inclined to shade off a little. We quote, without sacks, $1 26@1 22, and with sacks, $1 40 per cental. The only vessel now receiving cargo of Wheat at this port is the British bark Lock Dee, for Liverpool.

Flour is in full supply and prices are unchanged. The demand for local consumption is good, and small orders from the north have been filled during the week now under review. Shipments since last Thursday have reached about 4,000 bbls. Prices in New York are quoted as tending downward and unstable.

The receipts of oats have been fair, but not in excess of the demand which is good. $1 30@1 40 is paid for fair lots, extra quality $1 45 per 100 lbs., sacks included.

Feed is abundant and prices weak, the demand being hardly up to the supplies received and on hand.

Potatoes are coming in more freely and rates rule from 75cts. to $1 12½ per hundred, according to quality, only the best commanding the latter rates.

Onions are scarce, and go off readily at 1¾ to 1¾ cents. per pound. The supply of dairy products has been a little short at times during the week with a good demand for choice butter and cheese. The best article of roll butter commands 45@50 cents.

Eggs are scarce and all offering bring 30cts. ₰ doz., and are not more than enough to supply the local demand.

Fruits foreign and domestic are in good supply, with prices moderate. Our retail dealers claim generally to have done a good business during the week and feel encouraged.

The new market of Ankeny & Watson is well attended, and everything almost of an edible character from an oyster to 1,000 pounds of beef can be had at one or another of the numerous stalls there.

Dry goods for the most part are quoted as last week. Business in this branch has been fair and would be rather encouraging with a little more promptness on part of merchants and dealers in the interior in making their remittances. Some changes in woolen goods have taken place, more generally indicating a decline, effected probably by the low rates ruling for wool in the latter part of the season.

The matters stated in the following telegram were understood in San Francisco a few days ago, but the course is not considered a good one by leading business men there, from the fact that the quotations by telegraph have uniformly risen at the time each rise is noted in the Mark Lane Express, and fallen when those in that paper have fallen, always being about so much below, however:

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—The Liverpool Grain quotations furnished the California Associated Press and public, through the Gold and Stock Telegraph Company, are those of the New York Associated Press. The standard quotation is that of the California average of Wheat, and the prices given are sustained by the Liverpool weekly Liverpool Grain Circulars. Higher quotations, from the Mark Lane Express, evidently give the prices of California Club Wheat, which is not regarded either here or at Liverpool as an true criterion of the market as average Wheat.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET,

NEAR COMMERCIAL,

San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus inherited into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. To this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible, life-destroying maladies—see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his special study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans!

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rushing of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and sores on various parts of the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, cough, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a case specifically described by his own and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

CURED AT HOME.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicine promptly forwarded, free from exposure and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Post Office or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary some of the so-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily papers, are frequenters of San Francisco said other places, are tradesmen and became tailors to work at their trades. Some are ex-cattle, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing—and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon will refer to people by exhibiting bogus certificates, preceded by your letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his offices of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, or one Commercial, San Francisco, Post Office Box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please to inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.
